What services are available?
People attending will be able to get information, referrals and advice relating to a variety of issues.

Centrelink
A Centrelink outreach worker can provide information about Centrelink benefits, follow up payment queries and provide advice on issues faced by individuals.

Homeless Outreach Program
This program is provided by the Department of Human Services. It helps people who are experiencing difficulty accessing mainstream service centres to receive information, payments and other services.

PHaMs Employment Participants in this program work with their personal helper and mentor to develop individual plans that include achievement of employment and related goals.

To be eligible for PHaMs Employment, participants must:
• be 16 years or over
• have severe functional impairment due to mental illness
• live in the Blacktown Local Government Area
• be receiving the Disability Support Pension or other government income support payments
• be engaged with, or willing to engage with,
an employment service.

Western Sydney Partners in Recovery (WSPIR)
This program aims to support people who have severe and persistent mental illness with complex needs. To be eligible for this program people must be:
• aged between 26 and 60 years (negotiable)
• socially isolated, unemployed, homeless or have physical health issues and/or addictions
• be experiencing difficulty find the help they need or having their service needs met.

Legal Aid
A representative from Legal Aid will be available to give advice on a range of legal matters on the first and third week of each month.

Legal aid dates for 2015:
January 15th
February 5th 19th
March 5th 19th
April 2nd 16th

Fair Trading
Provides information and assistance for consumers on matters such as tenancy, motor vehicles, credit, phone services and many other issues.

Help filling out forms An Anglicare worker will be available to provide assistance with completing many types of forms – just bring them along!
